

Novo Nordisk International Talent Program – Application Form

The application for Novo Nordisk International Talent Program includes the application form and copies of your transcript of records, including both your Bachelor and Master grades if applicable. Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 3.0.

When evaluating applications, the following criteria applies:

- Whether the study plan has a focus on activities pertaining to metabolism, insulin, haemoglobin, obesity, big data or digitalization.
- That you intend to get pre-approved and apply for 30 ECTS when you go abroad or are engaged in a project stay at the host university which counts towards your degree.
- Your grade-point average

Name of applicant:

Home university		Host university
Choose from below		Choose from below
Study plan at host university
Outline of courses you wish to take during your studies abroad
Course title	Level	Department	ECTS/credits
Total ECTS/credits

My study plan has a focus on activities pertaining to (please check relevant box):

Metabolism

Insulin

Haemoglobin

Obesity

Big data

Digitalization

None of the above

Please specify how the courses you wish to take during your exchange address challenges in relation to metabolism, insulin, haemoglobin, obesity, big data or digitalisation.

Write approx. 250 words: